A HEAVY DOSE

Given the Embezzling Treasurer of Warren County, O.

Eighteen Years' Imprisonment and a Fine of $126,000.

He Pleaded Guilty to the Charge of Embezzlement Only—He Makes a Statement Before Receiving His Sentence, in Which He Tells How Treasurer Coleman Persuaded Him to Do Wrong.

LEBANON, O., March 10.—Al. Graham, the auditor of Warren county, stood up in a brand new and faultless fitting suit of clothes Saturday and took his medicine without a murmur. The dose was of allopathic size and caused a flutter in the crowded court room. "The sentence of the court is," said Judge White, in a firm tone, "that you be imprisoned in the penitentiary for the period of eighteen years and pay a fine of $126,000."

Graham entered a plea of guilty to the indictment charging him with aiding and abetting the embezzlement of $83,211.00. To the sixteen other indictments for receiving payment on false vouchers he entered a plea of not guilty. Before sentence was passed he made a statement to the court, confessing his complicity in the embezzlement of public money, but denied that he had received the amounts charged against him.

The fraudulent school warrants he said were given to Coleman to be used as cash in Coleman's settlement as treasurer with the commissioners. Coleman had been speculating in stocks and begged Graham with tears in his eyes to save him from ruin and disgrace. Graham said he never received a cent of the warrants entered in the blank space above the commissioners' names in the treasurer's book.

He also said his signature in that settlement was a forgery. Graham said that on the morning he left Lebanon Coleman came to his house and made a proposition to buy off the investigating committee. He told Coleman he could do but little, as he had only fifteen cents. He drove to the court-house afterward and Coleman sent out a roll of $800, which was to be used to buy off the committee, but Graham took the money and used it in his flight from town.

During his statement to the court Graham was the cynosure of all, but he never once faltered or manifested the least excitement. His voice was the same as it used to ring out merrily in the long corridor of the court house for so many years while he was auditor. Graham had for his attorneys J. Kelly O'Neill, W. L. Dechant and J. A. Runyan. The latter made a powerful and eloquent appeal for clemency, which brought out Prosecuting Attorney Anderson in sharp reply on behalf of the state.

FAILED FOR $500,000.

Bello & Freres, of San Francisco—Many Poor People Lose Their Savings.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 10.—Among the heaviest creditors of the banking house of Belloc & Freres which failed Friday for $500,000 are:

Charles Mayne, capitalist, $141,700.
E. L. Dartinger Hassenbe, $46,300.

San Francisco Savings and Loan society, $25,000.

The London and San Francisco bank, $24,000.

The Anglo-California bank, $19,000.

The creditors number 270, and the majority are poor French people, whose individual deposits are less than $1,000.

Hippolyte Belloc, the present head of the firm, was well known in the city years ago and was regarded as a very conservative man. He married a society belle of this city, the daughter of Gen. Sewell. The marriage was followed by the suicide of the bride, who poisoned herself on a grave in Lone Mountain cemetery. After that Belloc returned to Paris, where he has since resided.

The firm is reported to be worth $1,000,000, and owns banks doing a profitable business in five leading cities of South America, the principal establishment being in Lima and Valparaiso.

DEFECTIVE STATUTES.

Those in South Carolina in Regard to Dueling.

CHARLESTON, S. C., March 10.—The grand jury in Edgefield county has made a presentment which causes some excitement. The jury arraigns the supreme court for delays and innovations. It dismisses the Morris-Gardner duel, which was attempted last February, by attacking very severely the dueling law. They say the statutes are so defective that nothing short of a duel actually fought is ever likely to be brought to the test of a trial.

Regarding the escape from prison of two white murderers under sentence of death, the jury finds that the sheriff and his assistants were culpably negligent of their duty, and are undoubtedly responsible for the escape of the prisoners. In view of this presentment the sheriff, two jailers and two others have been arrested.

Schooner Capsizes—Crew Saved.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 10.—The schooner Sadie F. Callier, which has arrived here from Butantan, reports that before leaving that port the crew of the schooner Tierman had reached there, and reported the capsizing of their vessel in a squall off the Gilbert Islands. All of the crew of the Tierman were saved.

Dissipation Leads to Suicide.

SALT LAKE, Utah, March 10.—Charles W. Hempstead, aged 22, committed suicide Friday by shooting himself in the head. He was a son of the late Maj. Hempstead, United States attorney for Utah. Dissipation and despondency are given as the causes of the suicide.

NEGROES AND NEW ENGLAND.

Organized Effort to Induce an Exodus from the South to That Section.

BOSTON, March 10.—An organized effort is being made to induce an exodus of southern colored people to New England. The scheme finds its motive in the lack of suitable domestic servants in New England and in the desire of certain original Abolitionists to place the freedmen in a condition of civil liberty.

Mr. Stillman B. Pratt says the people of this section have within a few years found out that the women of the negro race make the best servants that can be had, and there is a constantly increasing demand for them from all parts of New England.

The invention of the promoters of the immigration movement is to have whole families come on—the women as servants and the men for laborers—and he says the purpose is to colonize them throughout New England in the same way that Vermont is encouraging the immigration of Swedish families.

Mr. Pratt says the local authorities of Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont, and Massachusetts, have promised to deal liberally with them, and that as soon as the proper time shall have arrived the word will be spoken which will start a considerable exodus from the southern states.

A TEXAS AMAZON

Cleans Out a Court Room and Departs Without Interference.

GAINESVILLE, Tex., March 10.—An infuriated woman, a perfect Samson in strength, turning the scale at 175 pounds, cleared Mayor Kirkpatrick's office Friday in most approved style. She was on trial for tolerating a nuisance on her premises, and in course of the trial took occasion to pour forth a volley of abuse on the mayor. He ordered her arrest, and the officer who undertook to execute the order at once found he had struck a virago. With the fury of a wildcat she clawed him and pounded him until he was a horrible-looking spectacle.

The city attorney attempted to interfere but was persuaded that it was none of his business when he received a judicious righthander on the jugular that sent him spitting.

The mayor was knocked out by a few sledge-hammer blows on the face, and the combat ended only when the mayor yelled to the policeman to let the fiend go. She picked up her collar, her hat and her gloves, pinned up her torn and tattered dress, and walked out of court with a mild look of elation in her eye.

PROHIBITION IN KANSAS.

A Decrease in the Population Ascribed to That Cause.

TOPEKA, Kan., March 10.—A mass convention was held last night in Representative hall in the interest of a re-submission of the prohibition law of this state. There was a large attendance of men of all parties.

Senator O. H. Bentley, of Wichita, a prominent Republican, delivered the principal address, declaring that prohibition in this state had been a complete failure. He submitted statistics to show that the population of the state had decreased in the last two years, and ascribed the fact to prohibition.

J. W. Steen, of Kingman, said the people were tired of the Prohibition farce, which had depleted the treasuries of the cities and towns and caused business stagnation.

ADDITIONS TO THE NAVY.

Three New Vessels About to Be Launched on the Delaware River.

PHILADELPHIA, March 10.—During March three war vessels for the United States navy will be launched from the ship yards on the Delaware river, and after that, for the first time in a number of years, there will be no government vessel on the stocks in these yards.

The first of these new boats to take the water was the gunboat Concord, which was launched at Chester Saturday. On the 19th the cruiser Newark will receive her baptism at Cramp's yard, in this city, and soon after the gunboat Bennington will be launched at Roach's yard. In addition to these interesting events the official trials of the Philadelphia and of the Vesuvius dynamite guns will take place soon.

Three Boys Meet a Terrible Fate.

EVANSVILLE, Ind., March 10.—A terrible explosion occurred in this city Friday afternoon. A few minutes later an alarm of fire was turned in, which proved to be at the Armstrong Furniture company's factory, resulting from an explosion in the dust or shaving room. Three boys, Mike Weber and Will Saché, white, and Will Cheatham, colored, who were in the room at the time, were slowly roasted to death.

Missouri's State Treasurer Resigns.

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., March 10.—State Treasurer Nowland handed his written resignation to Governor Francis Friday afternoon. The governor has not yet decided whether he will accept it. The question is raised whether a state officer who has been suspended can resign pending an investigation. Nowland's deficit is now said to be $32,718.55.

The Urgency Deficiency Bill.

WASHINGTON, March 10.—A sub-committee of the senate committee on appropriations had under consideration Saturday the urgent deficiency bill. Secretary Tracy appeared before the committee to explain the need of some appropriations. This is the first appropriation bill which the senate committee has taken up.

Five Million Dollar Mortgage.

COLUMBUS, O., March 10.—A big mortgage was filed here Friday by the Columbus, Shawnee and Hocking railroad, in favor of the Metropolitan Trust company of New York, the amount being $5,000,000. It is intended to buy, improve and extend the road to Marietta along the river.

Burned in Her Own Dwelling.

BALTIMORE, March 10.—The dwelling of Alexander Stokes near Ridgeley, Caroline county, was burned Friday. His wife perished in the flames.

The Week in Congress

Probable Program of Both Houses.

NOTHING STARTLING EXPECTED.

Blair's Educational Bill Will Probably Be Voted on in the Senate—Several Measures to Be Considered by the House—Other Washington Dispatches.

WASHINGTON, March 10.—The interest of the past week in congressional circles has centered in the investigation of secret session leakages in which Mr. Dolph's committee has been engaged. That committee is now engaged in calling senators as witnesses, and their examination may keep the committee busy during a greater part of the week. The general impression is that with this examination the investigation will cease and that the proposed imprisonment of recalcitrant newspaper witnesses will never take place.

Mr. Blair's educational bill will occupy the senate's afternoons during the coming week, and an effort will be made to bring it to a vote Friday afternoon. If it appears that this cannot be done the appropriations committee will bring in the urgent deficiency bill and interrupt the debate on the Blair bill long enough to pass it.

The committee on privileges and elections will submit its report on the Montana contest sometime during the week, and Mr. Hoar will ask that it be given consideration at an early day.

Much interest is felt in the establishment of a permanent order of business when the Blair bill shall be out of the way. Mr. Frye will endeavor to have the Pacific railroad funding bill taken up. Mr. Platt will put forward the bill for the admission of Wyoming. Mr. Sherman will press his anti-trust bill, which has had already a partial consideration. Mr. Hale will urge his bill for the increase of the naval establishment. Mr. Dolph will ask consideration for his Mexican award bill, and finally the under-valuations bill which will have been reported from the committee on finance by that time, will make a strong fight for immediate consideration.

During the morning hour through the coming week the calendar will be considered and the Oklahoma town site bill may be further debated.

The committee on territories will push to a conclusion this week in the house the bill providing for the organization of the territory of Oklahoma. Monday will be consumed in disposing of matters connected with the District of Columbia. Messrs. Baker, of New York, and Dorsey, of Nebraska, have given notice that they will call up for consideration the bills for the admission of Wyoming and Idaho to statehood, but on account of the Oklahoma bill this part of the program may not be carried out.

The committee on elections has the contested case of Mudd vs. Compton, from the Fifth Maryland district, ready to bring before the house, but Mr. Cooper who has charge of the case is willing to let the committee on territories dispose of its business before doing so. There is a probability however, that the case will be brought up before the end of the week, and in this event it will be pushed to a conclusion—the seating of Mr. Mudd. Friday, as usual, will be private bill day.

Ohio River Improvements.

WASHINGTON, March 10.—Col. William E. Merrill, chief of the engineer corps, had a hearing before the house committee on rivers and harbors Saturday, in order to present the ideas of the board of engineers, in regard to the improvement of the Ohio river. Col. Merrill intends to construct four movable dams below Davis island. The cost of these, he thought, would be about $900,000, and in order to acquire the adjacent land $10,000 more would be necessary. He considers that these improvements would cover a space of four years, and asks that a good working appropriation be allowed, so that when the work is once commenced there will be no delay.

Protection for Oranges.

WASHINGTON, March 10.—A delegation of prominent men from Florida, all of whom are interested in the orange industry of that state, arrived here last night, and will have a hearing before the house ways and means committee in a day or two to urge protection on oranges. Ex-Lieutenant Governor Mabrey, R. F. Rogers, president of the Farmers' Alliance of Florida; J. C. McKibben, president of the Orange Growers' union, and others prominently identified with orange growing in Florida, make up the delegation.

Saturday's Congress.

WASHINGTON, March 10.—A bill was passed to compel the attendance of witnesses in land office cases. Public building bills were then considered in committee, and a number passed and reported to the house. At 6:30 p. m. the house adjourned. The ### Shabby Treatment.

The Cincinnati Enquirer says: "Considerable comment is made upon the treatment given Kentucky's Governor who came to the city Saturday evening on a special train as the guests of the city. Although they had telegraphed acceptance of Mayor Mosby's invitation to attend the late George H. Pendleton's funeral and had announced their hour of arrival, not a soul was in the depot to meet the distinguished party. After waiting for a few moments they started out for themselves. Governor Buckner took quarters at the Burnet, and, after lingering for some time to see if anybody would come to tell them of the arrangements for the funeral, sent his Aid-de-Camp to learn something. The latter, hearing that Mayor Mosby was at the Gibson, went to that hostelry. After considerable trouble he learned that there was a committee handling the matter, the Mayor having departed. He entered the room and announced the presence of the Kentucky delegation.

"Well, we are glad to hear that you are here. Have you made any arrangements about going to the funeral?" said the officious Secretary.

"Why, we thought that had been attended to," replied the Aid-de-Camp.

"Not by any means. If you go you will have to walk," continued the brilliant Secretary. "By the way, if you are going back to the Burnet, I wish you would drop these letters in the box, and he handed him a dozen epistles ready for the mail."

THE Prohibitionists will hold their State convention at Lexington the 6th of May, to nominate a candidate for Clerk of the Court of Appeals.

More than 2,000 pension bills of various kinds have already been referred to the House Pension Committee, four of which, it is estimated, would take $670,000 from the treasury. The pension sharks at the National City are doubtless in high glee. A big surplus and an administration that doesn't care what becomes of it are what the sharks like, remarks an exchange.

CONGRESSMAN WILSON has introduced in the House of Representatives at Washington a bill "dividing Kentucky into two judicial districts, and providing for holding district courts in these districts. The bill provides that courts shall be held in Barbourville on the fourth Monday in September of each year, and may continue for a term of seven weeks, if so long time is required; at Cynthiaburg on the first Monday in March, and may continue for seven weeks, if so long time is necessary, and at Richmond on the first Monday in May, and may continue six weeks, if so long time is necessary."

How's This?

Mr. Editor—Wonder what compensation Assistant Postmaster Davis receives from Postmaster Cox for parading his wealth before the people in his monopolistic journal. It must be to let them know that said Cox has the wherewithal to make the race for Congress.

Mr. Davis sees fit to belittle hundreds of industrious working men who have added taxable wealth to the city, and did not have it left to them either. The writer would like to know which deserves the most credit, the man who builds his own home on a salary of ten dollars per week through the building associations or the man who never earned a dollar in his life, but had one hundred and fifty thousand left to him and invested seventy-five of it? Will Mr. Davis please inform the public how many bricks he has put one upon another?

The whole secret of Mr. Davis' failure to successfully run a Republican paper, lies in the undeniable fact that its columns have always been filled with a fulsome amount of gush showered upon rich men and corporations.

REPUBLICAN, BUT POOR.

Information Wanted.

Editor Bulletin: As everything that goes wrong about a city is generally brought to editors of the papers, may I ask who has charge of that portion of the Fleming pike in your city where those crossings are so high as to almost jerk a man out of his seat when he drives over it?

INJURED BACK.

Stock and Crop.

Six hogsheads of Brown County tobacco sold at Cincinnati a few days ago, averaging 14½ cents a pound. Some medium to good new, from Central Kentucky, ranged from 11½ to 17 cents.

The prospects for fruit are not at all encouraging. The warm summer weather has swelled the buds, and in many cases caused the peaches to bloom, while other fruit trees have also advanced greatly. The best horticulturists say the chances are decidedly against anything like a half crop of any kind of fruit.—Exchange.

THE LAKE SHORE ACCIDENT.

Conductor Houghtaling Said to Be Partially Responsible.

BUFFALO, March 10.—The patients in the Fitch hospital who were injured in the Lake Shore wreck are all doing nicely.

Coroner Tucker and a jury visited the scene of the wreck Saturday afternoon, and made a thorough examination of the road and the grade. The inquest will be held to-morrow afternoon. As additional facts are learned it becomes more clear that the responsibility for the accident rests with Conductor Houghtaling. The rules governing the case of a train breaking in two specially say: "The forward part must not stop until the engineer is sure that the rear part of the train has stopped." From the statement of the passengers it is evident no step was taken to ascertain the position of the detached portion before the forward part of the train was stopped in Thursday night's accident.

Railroad Commissioner Richards, with his mechanical engineer, arrived here Saturday, and, in company with Superintendent Couch, Engineer Mooney, Conductor Houghtaling, the switchmen, brakemen, and all the trainmen who had anything to do with the accident, went out to the scene of the wreck. Superintendent Couch has had a long consultation with the crew of the wrecked train. It is learned that Engineer Mooney stated that after the engine stopped, Conductor Houghtaling frantically signaled him to go ahead. He tried to do it, but the automatic brake on one of the rear cars had been set and the train would not move. It is said that Conductor Houghtaling stated that he pulled the bell rope to stop the engine, but he thought at the time the rear section had stopped. When he saw that it had not, he jumped to the ground and signaled the engineer to go ahead. Superintendent Wright says the result of the investigation being made by the company will not be made public until after the coroner's jury renders a verdict.

FACTORY BURNED.

Two Large Factories Destroyed by Fire Within Twenty-Four Hours.

ANDERSON, Ind., March 10.—Since Thursday night Anderson has lost over $100,000 worth of property and over 300 men have been thrown out of employment. Hardly had the smoldering ruins of the American wire nail works died away until another factory is wiped out of existence. Saturday morning at 4:30 the snath and cradle factory of T. C. Fisher, located in the northwest part of town, was totally consumed, together with the entire stock of material on hand. Mr. Fisher estimates his loss on material and building at $30,000; insured for $10,000.

The following are the companies and the amount of risk taken by each: London Assurance, Angola, Nevada, Traders, of Chicago, German American, amount of risk, $2,000 on building; North American, German of Freeport and California, $8,000 on stock; Fire Association, $1,000; London and Lancashire, $1,000; Royal of New York, $1,000; Underwriters of New York, $1,000, and Oriental of Hartford, Conn., $1,000. Total amount of insurance, $10,000.

This is the third fire Mr. Fisher has sustained within the past few years. He believes this to be the work of incendiaries. Two years ago the 19th of February last, Mr. Fisher was burned out. He immediately rebuilt on the present site. Mr. Fisher states that he will not rebuild. The loss of these two large factories is a severe blow to Anderson.

The fire originated in the painting room, and had got under too great a headway to be checked. This factory employed thirty men.

An alarm was turned in at the same moment from Kilgore's large heading factory, but the fire was extinguished with but small loss.

ALBERT NETTER IN LONDON.

He Expects to Return to Brazil Via New York.

NEW YORK, March 10.—A special cable to The World from London says Albert Netter, the Cincinnati banker and friend of Ives, who was discovered in January last in Rio de Janeiro as a prosperous negotiator, has turned up in London. He no longer finds it necessary to use the alias Nettleton, under which he did business in Rio de Janeiro.

He has been here some weeks, and has arranged to float the bonds of his forty miles of street railroad in Rio, for which the money has been furnished, partially by New York and partially by London investors. All his transactions with bankers and investors here have been made under his own name of Albert Netter, and his backers in New York called him under that name.

I expect to leave here for New York as soon as my contracts close," Mr. Netter said to a reporter, "which will probably be within three weeks. I expect to stay in New York some time before I return to Rio. There is no reason now, and never has been, why I should not return there. A good many lies have been told about me; for instance, it is not true that I married Clara Elas. The charge of Nellie Hayden, of Cincinnati, who accused me of embezzling certain bonds, is absurd. I never heard about the charge till after I left Cincinnati."

Fatal Injury from Careless Driving.

TOLEDO, O., March 10.—Mrs. Sidney Anson, residing in East Toledo, was fatally injured, about 4 o'clock, Saturday afternoon, by the carriage, in which she and her husband were riding, run into by a racing horse driven by Mr. A. L. Baldwin, on Madison street. Baldwin and Mr. J. G. Hickok were speeding their horses, and Mr. and Mrs. Anson were coming down Superior street. They did not see the racers in time, and the latter failed to turn, resulting in a collision. Baldwin was injured about the head, but not seriously. Mrs. Anson is still alive, but no hopes are entertained of her recovery. Much indignation is expressed at Baldwin's carelessness.

To Build Two Large Cotton Mills.

WEST CHESTER, Pa., March 10.—It is stated that 650 acres of land at Lenox, Penn., has been bought by an English syndicate, and that two mammoth cotton mills, to employ 3,000 hands, will be erected thereon.

BUT ONE LEFT.

A Mother and Seven Children Burned to Death in Canada.

MONTREAL, March 10.—Cote St. Michael, a flourishing little country parish, about five miles from Montreal, was the scene of a most heartrending fatality yesterday, by which a whole family consisting of a mother and seven young children were literally roasted to death.

About 5 o'clock in the morning Onezime Collerette arose, and after starting the fires, proceeded to the out-houses to look after the cattle. He had not long been engaged in this work when he was startled by a cry of fire, and rushing out, found the whole house in flames. Regardless of danger he rushed into the burning structure and made a desperate effort to rescue his wife and seven children. His efforts, however, were vain, as the fire had secured too great a headway and Collerette himself was rescued from the flames more dead than alive.

Within an incredibly short space of time the house was reduced to ashes and all that remained of the inmates were a few charred bones. Collerette was fearfully burned and was removed to a neighbor's house where he now lies in a very precarious condition. The fire is supposed to have been caused by the explosion of a can of kerosene oil which was left standing near the fireplace.

A Child's Horrible Death.

FOXBORO, O., March 10.—A little 6-year-old daughter of Joseph Road was burned to death here Saturday. The child, with several companions, was playing around a bonfire in the back yard when her clothing caught fire. Before any assistance arrived every stitch of clothing was burned off and the body was burned to a crisp, not so much as a square inch escaping. After several hours' suffering the child died. Mr. Road is an employee at the Crocker glass works.

MISSISSIPPI Levees All Right.

GREENVILLE, Miss., March 10.—Reports received from all of the levee district by telegraph are that the levees are all right.

OUR NEIGHBORS.

WASHINGTON.

Hard weather on the movers.

Thursday, 6th, was the coldest day of the sea on.

Mrs. Annie Barnes has returned to her home in Jessamine Co., Ky.

March 6, 1888, was the coldest day of that season, the mercury being down to zero.

Rev. Mr. Humphreys, of Mt. Carmel, is conducting a protracted meeting in the Methodist Church here.

Part of the Durrett claim, some 50,000 acres, lies within three or four miles of Pineville, and Judge Foster thinks it can be readily sold at $10 per acre.

Such a dog law as the BULLETIN spoke of in its last issue was offered for the signatures of farmers here for months last summer, but met with no encouragement.

Mr. B. D. Owens, we think, is about the only farmer in the county who has put up a fence, he having secured some twenty tons a few days ago by good management.

This town furnished a territorial Governor for Iowa and a provincial Governor for Louisiana, in the persons respectively of John Chambers and Joshua Baker. The latter has been dead but a short time.

The boom at Middletown seems to have become very limber all of a sudden. About the only boom that can be depended upon to last is the boom-pole of a farm wagon.

Some people don't seem to relish the "pitiful points." This isn't at all strange, for their case is like Pres. Walton's, who used to say he didn't care what you joked him about so you didn't joke about facts.

Some of those spoken of to represent this county in the Constitutional Convention would be birds for that place. About the only way they could adorn the position would be by proving the adage that "silence is golden."

SHANNON.

Miss Mollie McKrell, of Ripley, is the guest of her cousin, Miss Em. Browning.

Miss Crawford, of Missouri, is the guest of her cousin, Miss Mary Leachman, of Sardis.

J. B. Allison & Son, of "Needmore," have sold their store house and residence to Henry Cracraft. Billy Johnson will run the store.

At the Chamberlain Brothers' sale, near Mayslick, March 4, 6 months' time, fat hogs for $3.60 and stock hogs for $4 per hundred; 1 Jersey cow and calf, $50; 1 Jersey cow, $45; 1 steer, $35; 1 heifer, $25; 1 sow and pigs, $18; corn, 25 cents per bushel; 1 bay mare, $35; 2 calves, $30; sow and pigs, $25; 1 bay mare, $30; 1 bay mare, $35; 1 two-year-old male, $165; 1 two-year-old male, $135; 1 yearling male, $35. Refreshments were served to all. Thirty-five special friends were feasted on a royal dinner in the house, Miss Maggie Chamberlain presiding. Three hundred others were fed outside. J. D. Peed was auctioneer.

If reports are true, Mr. Olivet will soon, like the Phoenix, rise from her own ashes. The insurance adjuster has been around and settled with nearly all the parties. The new buildings will probably be built of brick and made fire-proof. The new church will probably be handsomer than the one destroyed, as the insurance money and subscription already made amounts to thirty-one hundred dollars.

HELENA.

Mr. John W. Ross is visiting in Manchester, O.

Mr. J. A. McCracken, of Maysville, was here Friday.

Martin Steele visited near Pleasant Valley the past week.

In Memory of the Late S. S. Riley.

At a meeting of the officers and directors of the First National Bank of Maysville, on the 7th day of March, 1890, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

WHEREAS, We have been called upon to yield our friend and associate, Mr. Samuel S. Riley, to the embrace of death; therefore,

Resolved, That we hereby bear our testimony to his worth and pay a tribute to his memory as a citizen, and as a man. Mr. Riley was a man of high ability, the strictest integrity, unsullied honor, noble impulses, and generous heart.

While we bow to the will of Him who doeth all things well, we recognize that in his untimely death, we sustain a loss almost irreparable, a loss in the chisel of our dearest friendships has been broken, and a great sorrow has fallen upon us all.

We deeply sympathize with his many friends and kindred, and assure the mourning widow and children of our condolence, trusting that He whose tender mercies are over all, His works will gently lead and sustain them.

Resolved, That this testimony be spread on our records and a copy thereof sent to the widow and father, also to the city press.

A. FINCH, President.

Railway News.

General Superintendent Geo. W. Stevens, of the C. and O., was here Saturday from Richmond, Va.

The earnings of the C. and O. for the month of February show an increase of $146,562 54 over those for the corresponding month of last year.

In the year 1889, the manufacturers of cement on the line of the Jeffersonville, Madison and Indianapolis shipped 1,- 177,642 barrels of cement, most of it going north.

Says the Paris Record: "We understand
Mr. Huntington has made arrangements to build a road from Cleveland, Ohio, on Lake Erie, via Columbus to Maysville, Ky., on the Ohio River. He will also extend the Livingston branch to Knoxville, Tenn., thus making a through trunk line from Knoxville, Tenn., to the lakes.
If this news is true it will be one of the best lines in the State."

The C. and O. trains are again running on schedule time. Three pile-drivers were put to work Saturday at the slip just west of Lawrence Creek bridge, and soon had the track repaired so that trains could pass over safely. Freight and passenger traffic was resumed yesterday.

The following is a statement of the gross earnings, expenses and net earnings of the Chesapeake and Ohio for the month of January:

Gross earnings.....	$ 85,000
Expenses.....	481,000
Net earnings.....	$101,000

Net earnings, January, 1889..... 95,713

Increase..... $ 5,27

The small increase in the net earnings for January, 1890, as compared with those of the preceding January, is due to the fact that a very considerable sum was charged up to expenses last January on account of extraordinary expenses incurred during the month.

W. P. Walker, Jr., well known in this city, has been appointed Freight Traffic Manager of the C. and O., with headquarters at Cincinnati. He was born in this State, and began business life in 1873

as agent of the Big Sandy Packet Company. In 1878 he became City Ticket Agent of the Chesapeake and Ohio at Cincinnati; 1880 found him back with the Big Sandy Company as General Freight Agent, and in 1882 he again became agent of the Chesapeake and Ohio at Cincinnati. In 1886 he was elected Manager of the Kanawha Dispatch, which position he resigns to-day to accept the new office.

E. D. Hotchkiss will remain General
Freight Agent of the company.

A Rough and Tumble Fight.

Gus. Duvard, a tenant on "Squire Vicrey's farm near Moransburg, and his brothers, Jim and Geo. Duvard of Bracken County, were returning home from Maysville Saturday afternoon when the three got into a rough and tumble fight near the churches on Lawrence Creek.
They were arrested by Constable Moran, but resisted and attempted to escape
shortly afterwards.

It was three to one, but the plucky officer finally came out best. In the scramble one of the prisoners struck him on the head with a rock, inflicting a painful wound.

'Squire Pickett taxed Gus $10 and costs for resisting an officer, and let the others off with a fine of $2 each and costs.

Who Holds the Lucky Ticket?

The drawing for that $400 diamond given away by J. Ballenger, the jeweler, came off Saturday afternoon at the office of the Central Hotel. Ticket No. 4,019 won the gem. The drawing was under the supervision of Dr. Strode, Captain Collier and Messrs. Stanley Lee and M.
F. Marsh. A large crowd of interested parties was present. A careful examination was made to see that all tickets were in the box. They were then thoroughly shaken up, after which Master Frank Barkley was selected to make the draw, with the above result.

The holder of the lucky ticket has not yet called for the prize.

Churches and Preachers.
Pour persons were baptized at the First Baptist Church last evening.

The revival in the M. E. Church at New Richmond has resulted in one hundred conversions.

There will be preaching every evening this week at the First Baptist Church by the pastor, Rev. W. J. E. Cox. All are invited.

Rev. Sam Jones says he does not intend to move to Kentucky and farm. He asserts that he is "making more money than any ten Bishops in the Methodist Church, and it would be foolish for him to go into anything like an experiment."

Entitled to the Best.
All are entitled to the best that their

Fine Merchant Tailoring.
J. Rennier & Son have opened a merchant tailoring establishment in the January building on Sutton street, where they propose to turn out the nobbiest suits of the season. Perfect fits guaranteed.

MR. MARK DONOVAN, one of the proprietors of the Winchester Democrat, was brought here Saturday evening, and is at the home of his parents on Grant street, suffering from an attack of fever. He has been ill about two weeks.

At Owingsville, in the trial of George F. Green for the murder of John Davidson, the jury failed to agree. There were six for acquittal and six for conviction, three of the latter being for inflicting the death penalty, the others being for a life sentence in the penitentiary.

J. E. VALJEAN, editor of the Port-mouth Blade, was arrested for criminal libel by N. W. Evans, of the Press of that city. The charge is that Valjean published the statement that Evans had accepted a bribe from him to nolle proceedings in the U. S. Court, of which Evans is Commissioner.

THOMAS J. BARKLEY a Cincinnati drummer, got judgment for $250 at Georgetown, Ky., against the Cincinnati Southern Railroad Company, for having been ejected from a train. He got on a special train, which the agent told him was the regular train, and on refusing to get off, was put off by the conductor.

P. W. KING, a workman on the C. and O. from Huntington, W. Va., had one of his legs broken near the ankle Saturday afternoon, while he was at work near the Lawrence Creek bridge. The ankle joint was also dislocated. The accident was due to the carelessness of another employee.

JOSEPH GRAHAM, of Chester, died Saturday morning, of "hasty consumption."
He was about forty-five years of age and had been an employee of the James H.
Hall Plow Company for a number of years. He was a member of Joseph Heiser Post No. 13, G. A. R., and will be buried this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock by the Post.

A MARRIED woman of Dover came near having roasted owl for breakfast one morning last week. The bird flew in the stove through the flue during the night, and when she started to build a fire it flew out, striking her in the face. Screams of "murder," "fire," "robbers," at once resounded through the house and brought the lazy husband bounding out of bed and to the scene. The poor little owl didn't escape.

Here and There.

State Senator Poyntz was in town this

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. T. Wood.

Mrs. A. F. Cheek and Mrs. J. J. Heron returned to Danville Saturday afternoon, after a visit of several days to Mr. and Mrs. Will Thomas.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Armstrong and daughter, of Hillsboro, O., left for home yesterday on the Boston, after a visit of two weeks to Mrs. Hal Gray.

The Cynthiana Times says: "Miss Lucy Clary, of Mayslick, is visiting relatives here, and it comes from good source that she is soon to wed a Cincinnati gent."

Miss Carrie Sutherland, of Sycamore, went down Friday to visit Dr. Strode, of Maysville. We introduced Mrs. Senator Poyntz, who sat near her. They are two interesting ladies.—Paris Kentuckyian.

Pithy Points From Washington.

Whisky is the ally of the gallows.

Liquor is the main-stay of the workhouse.

Rum is the corner-stone of the penitentiary.

Whisky has been the eternal undoing of thousands.

Whisky in a man makes the fiend in him predominant.

A man, to gratify his thirst for rum, will not stop at any excess.

Whisky shops are mile-posts on the road
by which men reach the gallows.

Liquor saloons are the conveyances which land men at the work-house.

Dram shops are the short cut which so many take, who finally bring up at the gallows.

Saloons are the stepping-stones by which hundreds of men climb to the gallows.

Rum shops are the schools in which men are prepared for the gallows route to perdition.

Rum establishments are the recruiting stations from which penitentiaries are overflowed.

Saloons are the hot-beds in which is propagated every species of vice, immorality and crime.

Whisky factories, though productive of profit to their owners, are productive only of evil to all others.

Watch the whisky traffic, else it may be the cause of breaking your own heart and your son's neck.

Liquor factories, though profitable institutions to their owners, are eternal loss to countless thousands.

One whisky shop in a small place inoculates the whole vicinity with that which is worse than small-pox.

Watch the rum traffic, for its constant aim is to ensnare all our sons, and make of them brutes and fiends.

Dakota's Destitution.

The Red Cross Issues an Appeal for Aid.

OVER FIVE THOUSAND IN WANT.

Money Asked for Which Will Carefully Be Expended Under the Supervision of the State Commissioner of Agriculture for Dakota.

WASHINGTON, March 10.—The following statement to the American people has been received by the United Press from Clara Barton, president of the National association of the Red Cross: "For many weeks past the Red Cross has been in receipt of letters of appeal and statements in regard to suffering and destitution existing among the pioneer settlers of North and South Dakota. These appeals have come to us from trusted co-workers, and those who speak by rule as authority on such matters. At last, they became so urgent as to be no longer ignored.

"Living here at the National capital, it was decided to call upon the senators and representatives in congress from these new-born states of ours. As one result of the interviews then had, Senator L. R. Casey, of North Dakota, wrote to Governor John Miller informing him of the inquiries of the Red Cross, under date of Bismarck, Feb. 18. Governor Miller wrote, thanking the Red Cross for the kindly interest evinced, and stating that he had referred the matter to Hon. H. T. Helgesen, state commissioner of agriculture and labor, with instructions to give all particulars as to the wants of their people.

"Under date of Grand Forks, Feb. 21, Commissioner H. T. Helgesen wrote in part as follows: 'There are probably 5,000 to 6,000 people dependant, and a good many more who have provisions for themselves but need feed for stock. Considerable help has been received from St. Paul and Minneapolis, also from Chicago, and from several states east and south, but thus far only enough to temporarily relieve the needs of the destitute, and much more will have to be solicited from time to time.'

"Commissioner Helgesen accompanies his letter with a paper which contains an appeal to the public signed by the commissioner, as follows: 'The suffering for the want of provisions, clothing, feed, and feed for stock, in several counties of North Dakota is unprecedented. The destitution is almost exclusively confined to the newer portions of the state, where the settlements date back two, three and four years, except Nelson and Ramsey counties, which have been settled about six years. These new settlements were, like earlier settlements of most countries, composed largely of people whose resources would have been heavily taxed to succeed and keep themselves above want with favorable seasons.'

"The story as told by the commissioner, is that of all our new states, Good seasons at first rewarded them; every acre was turned over for harvest in 1888. All appeared well until August of that year when a severe frost, a thing unknown before, killed the ripening grain. It did much damage in the old and better portions of the state but it entirely destroyed the newer sections. The hardy men did not lose their courage but hired out to neighbors, thereby earning the money necessary for the seed and living of 1889. The unprecedented drought of last year was doubtless felt most severely of any where in the west in the fields and families of the newly settled portions of both North and South Dakota.

"As Commissioner Helgesen says, a second entire failure in some sections left many people destitute. He adds: 'While nearly the entire state suffered from drought, only seven or eight counties need much assistance. In these areas are the counties where the greatest amount of assistance is needed, viz: Nelson, Ramsey, Benson, Pierce, Bottineau, Rolette and Turner. Cavalier county will also need some help, as will Eddy and Mentosh, the latter in the southern portion of the state. In the counties named there are not less than 5,000 people dependent, wholly or in part, on outside help, and until they can raise another crop, and a still larger number will need some assistance for stock. Most of them have hay, but horses and oxen will not be able to work sufficiently to get in the spring crops, unless they have grain. The supplies heretofore received are far from meeting the demands, and provisions are urgently needed. The counties are well organized and supplies are distributed through the county commissioner. The greatest care is taken to prevent the improper use of these donations. All contributions, whether money or provisions for clothing, should be forwarded to said commissioner at Grand Forks, where the proper division will be made.'

"Commissioner Helgesen explains the condition of the state by showing that under its constitution in taking over property and debts from the former territory it has nearly reached the legal maximum of debt that may be incurred. It is, therefore, unable as a state to raise all the money and means necessary to supply the destitute. There is no doubt, from all the evidence, that the people of North Dakota are doing the very best for their suffering fellow-citizens. There is no doubt that appeals already made, and publicly given, have met with warm responses from the northwest. But there is no room to doubt that very much more is needed. The Red Cross association has satisfied itself as to that. Inquiries by its general field agent confirm this appeal and information as well as other statements received. There is no need with the excellent methods adopted by the state authorities for the presence of the Red Cross on this field; but there is a duty before it, and before the people of the sister states as well. The Red Cross believes that its duty will be done if by this authoritative statement it shall be the means of inducing subscriptions for the suffering people of Dakota large enough in amount to meet all the emergencies that will arise."

"There are six months of short rations, of unclothed human beings, of seedless fields, with all their attendant privations yet before these people. Judging from past experiences and observations it would appear to us wiser to send money that can be used on the ground under direction of the state officials assigned to the duty than to spend it for railroad freight in purchasing goods or other articles of supplies, that may be better and more properly obtained with cash in the hands of those who know where it is most needed. In that way there will be a double help secured, as the people will thereby be aided to help themselves.

"The Red Cross, therefore, advises that subscriptions be sent to H. T. Helgesen, state commissioner of agriculture and labor, Grand Forks, N. Dak. It urges this because of the necessity and from a sense of the obligation which all America owes to these pioneer brethren who built new commonwealths in the west.

"By order of the executive committee,

"CLARA BARTON,
President of the American National Association of the Red Cross."

THE LAST SAD RITES.

Funeral Services Over the Body of the Late German Minister.

CINCINNATI, March 10.—The funeral services over the remains of the late minister to Germany, Hon. George H. Peudleton, were held in this city Saturday. The services in Christ church was conducted by the Rev. Dr. Gibson and the Rev. Dr. Forest, the latter rector of Calvary church, Clifton, where Mr. Pendleton worshiped. It was attended by the family and friends only. Meantime one of the most imposing military and civic corteges ever seen in Cincinnati followed to escort the remains to Music Hall. Notable in the procession were all the political clubs of both parties. The passage of the cortego in the streets was marked by respectful and sorrowful interest of great numbers of persons who knew the deceased in life.

On arrival at Music Hall that magnificent building was found to be filled, except the space reserved for those in the procession. As the casket was borne down the middle aisle to a catafalque in front of the center of the stage, the long line of pall-bearers separated and faced inward, while the audience arose and remained standing. Meanwhile the great organ sounded a funeral march. The hall had been beautifully draped with National emblems and the space about the casket was decorated with palms.

The casket itself was most beautifully covered with the National colors, covered with calla lilies, with palms bound with purple. Conspicuous among the flowers was a wreath bearing the German colors, placed there by C. Pollie, the German consul at Cincinnati, in obedience to instructions from Count Arco Valley, the German minister at Washington, as a token of love of the German people for Mr. Pendleton.

After prayer by Rev. Dr. Forest and an anthem by the choir of young ladies of the College of Music, led by Professor Foley, the oration was pronounced by Hon. Isaac M. Jordan. After these services were ended, the casket was placed in the hearse, and followed by the family and friends, was borne to Spring Grove cemetery, where final interment was made. Fully 12,000 persons were in Music Hall, and many were unable to find room within.

The Only One in the World.

BUFFALO, N. Y., March 10.—"The world looks new to me now" said James Kelly, who was convicted of murder and sentenced to imprisonment for life in 1871, and who was released on a pardon Thursday. "Grover Cleveland was sheriff at the time of my sentence," continued the old man, "and instead of sending a deputy to Auburn with me he went himself, saying that he had never been in the state prison and wanted to improve the opportunity. I believe I am the only man in the world who has been escorted to prison by a president of the United States."

Found Floating in the River.

PEORIA, Ill., March 10.—The body of Bernhard Junghaus, a wealthy horse importer, was discovered floating in the river here with the head split open, late last night. It is known that Junghaus carried considerable cash, but all the money and valuables were missing. The fact that the money, watch, etc., are missing would lead to the impression that the killing was done by a common thief, but the police think that the body was plundered to create such an impression, and that the bloody deed was committed by jealous husband. No arrests have yet been made.

Still Flooding the Mine.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., March 10.—For the first time since the fire began smoke ceased issuing from the South Wilkesbarre shaft Sunday afternoon. Over a thousand gallons of water a minute have been poured into the mine for several days, and it has now reached the fire. By Tuesday next it is thought the flames will be extinguished, and further search will be made for the eight men who were in the mine when the fire broke out.

Hotel Burned in St. Paul.

ST PAUL, Minn., March 10.—The commercial hotel of South St. Paul, the great stock yards suburb of St. Paul, was destroyed by fire at 2 o'clock. Sunday morning. Peter Foley, the proprietor, was badly injured by being struck on the head with a heavy vase thrown from a window. The building was a total loss, but most of the contents were saved.

Stayed Adrift in a Barrel.

SPARTA, Tenn., March 10.—The mail carrier between Smithville and Sparta reports that a barrel was found floating down the Caney Fork river and caught at the mouth of Indian creek, containing a live baby about a week old. It had floated about sixty or seventy miles, but was in good shape when found.

Matilda Ruby Dead, Aged 123.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., March 10.—Matilda Ruby died at Raywick, Ky., yesterday, aged 123 years. Her mother, Charlotte Shuck, died at the same place five years ago. She was the nurse of James Lambkins, who still lives at the age of 80, and has the family Bible in which her birth is recorded in 1767.

All a Mistake.

ROJANERO, March 10.—It is officially denied that the government has resolved to promulgate a constitution prior to the meeting of the constituent assembly.

There are six months of short rations, of unclothed human beings, of seedless fields, with all their attendant privations yet before these people. Judging from past
